

ISSUE #14 / APRIL 2023

THE TRUTH IS DOWN HERE...

THE ARTIFACT

TWO COUNTRIES – ONE HOLIDAY

2-3

TOP 4 BOOKS ABOUT COURAGE AND HEROISM DEVOTED TO THE DEFENDER OF THE FATHERLAND DAY

4

BEST OF THE BEST!

5-11

SPRING

12

8TH MARCH IN DIFFERENT COUNTRIES

13-14

HOW NOT TO MISS THE SPRING?

15-16

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS AT THE STUDENT'S SPRING - 2023»

17-20

ST. PATRICK'S DAY: HOW IT WAS 250 YEARS AGO AND HOW IT IS NOW?

21

CAN A FILM CHANGE YOUR PERCEPTION OF LOVE?

22-23

СОЗДАНО С

РОСМОЛОДЁЖЬ

ГОДАНТЫ

TWO COUNTRIES – ONE HOLIDAY

The most favorite holiday among the citizens of Russia is New Year. It is associated with long weekends, fun, decorating New Year trees and the smell of tangerines, fireworks and much more. New Year is a particularly magical holiday for each of us.

Here are some features of the Russian New Year:

1. “The Irony of Fate”

Russian New Year is not complete without family and friends getting together to watch the extremely popular Russian movie “The Irony of Fate.” Serve some tasty foods while watching the movie, and don’t forget the classic Russian New Year’s dish, the Olivier salad!

2. Food

Food is a very important aspect when celebrating the New Year in Russia. Tables will break under the huge amount of amazing and delicious dishes. The main dish on New Year’s Eve is the Olivier salad, «Seledka pod shuboy» salad (which is made of beetroot, eggs, potatoes, carrots, onions and mayo), jellied meat and cabbage rolls, and of course champagne as a drink.

3. Ded Moroz and Snegurochka

The two most important fairy-tale characters associated with New Year in Russia are, for sure, Grandfather Frost (or Santa Claus) and Snow Maiden (Snegurochka).

Grandfather Frost is an old man with a beard in a red or blue suit, with a magical stick and a large bag of gifts for children who behaved well throughout the year and wrote letters to Grandfather Frost. As for the Snow Maiden, everything went smoothly and magically with her. The character was invented by the famous Russian writer Alexander Ostrovsky in 1873. The girl fashioned from snow was the daughter of Spring and Frost.

4. Traditions

A common New Year’s expression is “The way you spend New Year’s Eve is the same way you’ll spend the rest of the year”. That’s why it’s so important that the last day of the year has to be free from worries and arguments. You should forgive people, pay off your debts and clean the house to start the new year happy and clean.

5. A midnight date with Putin

Mostly all Russians around the world tune in to hear the Russian president offer his wishes for the upcoming year. Once he finishes, the clock tower on Red Square chimes, fireworks burst into the air and the New Year officially begins. So, we reminisced the most important moments of the New Year celebration in Russia.

So, we reminisced the most important moments of the New Year celebration in Russia. And how do our “neighbors” from other countries celebrate this holiday?

Let's learn more about Chinese New Year traditions:

1. The day of celebration

In China, there is no exact date for the beginning of the new year and every year is celebrated on different days. Also, the Chinese New Year is often informally called the “Lunar new Year”, because its date is determined and based on the lunar phases. And as the Chinese New Year is calculated using the lunar calendar, its celebration falls every time on different dates in the period from January 21 to February 21. The duration of the Chinese New Year is the same as the Russian New Year holidays and it lasts for 15 days! During this time, working life in China freezes; Chinese residents have fun, relax and celebrate the holiday with their family.

2. The main color – red

Red is a traditional holiday color in China. On New Year's Eve people decorate their houses with garlands and lanterns made of red paper; the Tree of Light – an analogue of a Christmas tree – is decorated with flowers. In some provinces, a red scroll with the image of the hieroglyph “Fu”, meaning happiness, is hung on the door. Children and the elderly are given money in red envelopes.

3. “The spring migration”

The most important component of the New Year in China is family reunification. Everyone should come home for the New Year's Eve dinner. Therefore, during the last days before the holiday, crowds of people who want to visit parents for the holidays gather in public transport. Thousands of tickets are sold per second and there are real battles to get them. This phenomenon is called “The spring migration”.

4. And what about meat dumplings?

As it turns out, there is a love for meat dumplings in China. But they are called jiaozi there, and this is a favorite food of the Chinese during the holidays. According to the Chinese tradition, if there are lots of meat dumplings on the table, then you will be lucky in the New Year. Therefore, meat dumplings are an inseparable attribute of the festive table and their joint cooking is a good tradition. For many Chinese, it's a symbol of happiness and harmony in the family, as well as the unity of all its members. An interesting tradition is to put a coin in one of the dumplings, and the one who gets it will be very happy during the whole year.

5. Traditions

Unlike Russia, it is forbidden to clean and wash in China for the New Year, not to wash away good luck. However, the Chinese still have one day before the holiday to clean their houses and to wash up.

by Pilipenko A. and Shaverskaya D.

TOP 4 BOOKS ABOUT COURAGE AND HEROISM DEVOTED TO THE DEFENDER OF THE FATHERLAND DAY

97 years ago, they began to celebrate February 23 in Soviet Russia, the anniversary of the creation of the Red Army. The modern Defender of the Fatherland Day has gone quite far from the harsh romance of the post-revolutionary years - now it is perceived as a "day of men", defenders in the broadest sense of the word.

"The Artifact" offers you "Top 4 books about courage and heroism" that will definitely not leave you indifferent.

Grigory Baklanov "Forever - nineteen"

A poignant story about four young men and women who lost each other forever in a whirlwind of war. They had everything - friendship and first love, the strength of youth and courage, real and sincere feelings.

This is a story about yesterday's schoolchildren, who involuntarily had to become defenders of their homeland and sacrifice their happiness. What they were - the young heroes of the Great War, you will find out by reading this book.

Boris Vasiliev "Not on the list"

Another immortal story from Boris Vasiliev, and this time it is about those courageous people who took the first fire of the war - the defenders of the Brest Fortress. They were the first to die under shelling, to be captured or to lose family and friends. This is the story of all those nameless soldiers of the Great War who fell immortal heroes whose names cannot be found on the lists...

Boris Vasiliev "The Dawns Here Are Quiet..."

Perhaps everyone knows this story about five anti-aircraft gunners who died in the forests surrounded by the Germans. One of them loved poetry, the other believed in love, the third was brought up in an orphanage ... But they all wanted one thing - to live. It's easy to live, especially since the sky above your head is so bright, and they are young and beautiful, and their whole life is just beginning.

"- There is no mother. There is a war, there are Germans, I am, foreman Vaskov. But there is no mother. Those who survive the war will have mothers ..."

Boris Polevoy "The Tale of a Real Man"

The book tells about the life of a young pilot Alexei Maresiy (in the book, his surname is changed to Meresiy), to whom doctors, due to a serious illness, were forced to amputate both legs. But Alexei did not give up, courageously he learned to walk and even dance on prostheses, overcoming excruciating pain and stress, he nevertheless returned to the ranks of his comrades. There is also love in this book - the beloved girl Olya courageously waited for the guy from the war...

This holiday is not just a beautiful date on the calendar, but a tribute to the memory and respect for all those who have defended and will continue to defend our country. Everyone should protect it - at least by reading such books and understanding the history of the great feat.

by Samigullina S.

BEST OF THE BEST!

BEST ESSAY COMPETITION WINNERS 2023

YEAR I

- I place Ivanova Maria
Salieva Ksenia
Yansubaev Gleb
- II place Syrbu Polina
Minigalieva Milena
- III place Cherepanova Alexandra
Abdullin Kamil
Apkanieva Victoria
Ponomarev Ivan

YEAR II

- I place Shamanina Valeria
Fazylov Ainur
- II place Mufazzalova Elina
Davletshin Aivar
- III place Mindiyarova Vera
Khomitskaya Anastasia

YEAR III

- I place Galieva Ilnura
Shaverskaya Darya
- II place Zainitdinova Tatyana
Pilipenko Angelina
- III place Rashitova Irina
Khusnutdinova Dina
Nikolaeva Ksenia

YEAR V

- I place Shirokova Anastasia
Vasilyeva Oksana
- II place Zinova Yana
Fairuzova Valeria
- III place Mamalimova Ailina
Ishmuratov Maxim

BASHKIR-ENGLISH GROUP, YEAR III

- I место Minikhanova Ilgizya
Shaimukhametov Timur
- II место Gilimshina Railya
- III место Khamatshina Alsu

We hasten to congratulate all winners of the annual contests “Best Essay Competition” and “Best Translation Competition”. These people have shown themselves properly in such a hard mission. Keep it up!

BEST TRANSLATION COMPETITION WINNERS 2023

YEAR I

- I place Cherepanova Alexandra
- II place Chikurova Karina
Fazylova Kamila
- III place Minigalieva Milena
Isroilova Elza

YEAR II

- I place Davletshin Aivar
- II place Shamanina Valeria
Isaeva Elina
- III place Mindiyarova Vera
Khusainova Eliza
Khomitskaya Anastasia

YEAR III

- I place Shaverskaya Darya
Zainitdinova Tanya
- II place Medvedeva Yelena
- III place Khalikova Regina
Mukhamatdinova Sofia

YEAR V

- I place Ishmuratov Maxim
- II place Tishina Natalya
- III place Zinova Yana
Fairuzova Valeria

As you know, 2023 year is the Year of Teacher and Mentor, that's why contests' texts were dedicated to this topic. Let's enjoy some wonderful works of our talented students!

by Galieva K.

THE
YEAR OF TEACHER

THE YEAR OF MENTOR

Учителю, с любовью

Со звонком на урок миссис Дрю подошла ко мне и предложила вкратце рассказать о процедуре регистрации, сборе денег на обед и других обязанностях, ожидаемых от меня. Поэтому я провел вторую половину дня в ее классе, наблюдая и восхищаясь, как умело она сочетала терпение с твердостью, порядок с бурлящей активностью. Молодежь была занята различными заданиями в малых группах, приводившими к постоянному шуму и гулу, которые я находил несколько раздражающими. Я спросил миссис Дрю о ее реакции на это, и она ответила, что не против; пока они были заняты, они учились, даже если все казалось довольно хаотичным; вырастая, они увидят необходимость в большем внимании и тишине.

Я оставался с ней до тех пор, пока не прозвенел звонок об окончании учебного дня. Возвращаясь домой в тот вечер, я почувствовал вскипание моей души, оно нарастало, пока мне не захотелось громко и беспричинно крикнуть. Школа, дети, Уэстон, грязная, кишачая мухами улица, по которой я спешил — ничто из этого не умаляло чудесного ощущения трудовой занятости. Наконец-то у меня была работа, и хотя она обещала полностью испытать мои способности, она предоставила мне возможность — замечательное слово — работать в условиях достойного равенства в устоявшейся профессии.

Сегодня я был учителем, принятым на работу. Правда, я был учителем неопытным, но это тоже могло стать преимуществом. Я научусь, клянусь Богом, я научусь. Ничто не остановит меня. Миссис Дрю справилась, миссис Дейл-Эванс справилась, миссис Клинтридж справилась, так что я тоже лопну, но справлюсь. Четыре года назад я бы даже не подумал, что это возможно. Я не стал учителем по призванию; мое решение не было обдуманно в интересах молодого поколения или распространения планового образования. Это было решение, принятое из-за большой потребности в еде; это было решение, вызванное чередой несчастных событий, что начались примерно через неделю после моей демобилизации из Королевских Военно-Воздушных сил в 1945 году.

The translation of Davletshin Aivar, Group 23

Учителю, с любовью

Как только прозвенел звонок на урок, миссис Дрю подошла ко мне и предложила кратко ознакомить меня с процессом регистрации, сбором денег на обеды и прочими обязанностями, которых от меня ожидали. Я провел день в ее классе, наблюдая и восхищаясь тем, как умело она сочетала спокойствие и твердость, порядок с бурлящей деятельностью. Дети выполняли различные задания в небольших группах, от чего в комнате стоял гул, который показался мне раздражающим. Я спросил миссис Дрю о том, почему она не обращает на это внимание, на что она ответила, что совсем не против этого; до тех пор, пока они были заняты, они учились, даже если это казалось хаотичным; как только они будут становиться старше, они поймут, что им необходима концентрация и тишина.

Я остался вместе с миссис Дрю до последнего звонка. По дороге домой тем вечером я чувствовал, как кипит мое нутро, настолько, что хотелось кричать что есть мочи. Школа, дети, Уэстон, кишася мухами грязная улица, по которой я спешно шел, ничто не могло умалить то прекрасное чувство, когда ты принят на работу. Спустя долгое время у меня, наконец, появилась работа, и, хотя она предполагала, что мне придется использовать мои способности на полную, она давала мне возможность – какое прекрасное слово – работать в условиях достойного равенства в устоявшейся профессии.

Сегодня я был учителем, официально трудоустроенным. Правда, еще неумелым, но это может быть моим преимуществом. Я научусь, клянусь Богом, я научусь. Ничто не остановит меня. Миссис Дрю справилась, миссис Дэйл-Эванс справилась, мисс Клинтридж справилась, и я тоже справлюсь или лопну. Четыре года назад я бы даже не думал об этом. Я не стал учителем по призванию, это не было взвешенным решением в интересах молодых людей или расширения планового образования. На это решение меня натолкнула потребность в пище, я принял это решение из-за череды неприятных событий, которые начались через неделю после демобилизации из Королевских Военно-Воздушных сил в 1945 году.

The translation of Zainitdinova Tanya, Group 33

THEY EAR OF TEACHER

THEY EAR OF MENTOR

Учителю, с любовью

Когда прозвенел звонок на урок, миссис Дрю подошла ко мне и вкратце рассказала о ведении журнала, сборе денег на обед и подобных обязанностях, которые я должен был выполнять. Я провел весь день в ее классе, наблюдая и восхищаясь тем, как искусно ей удается сочетать терпение с твердостью, порядок с бурлящей деятельностью. Ученики, разбившись на маленькие группы, выполняли разные задания, тем самым создавая постоянный шум и гам, которые я принимал за нечто раздражительное. Я спросил миссис Дрю, как она к этому относится, и она ответила, что не обращает на это внимания. Пока дети заняты делом, они учатся, даже если это похоже на беспорядок. Когда они подрастут, они поймут, что лучше работать в тишине, сосредоточившись.

Я был с ней до того момента, пока не прозвенел последний звонок и уроки закончились. По дороге домой в тот вечер я чувствовал, как вскипал мой дух. Мне хотелось кричать во все горло. Школа, дети, Уэстон, убогая, грязная, кишачая мухами улица, по которой я спешил, все это не могло затмить моего счастья по поводу работы. Наконец-то у меня появилась работа, и пускай мне придется подвергнуть испытанию свои способности, теперь у меня была возможность – какое прекрасное слово! – работать на равных среди равных на благо авторитетной профессии.

С сегодняшнего дня я – учитель, у меня есть работа. Конечно, я еще неопытный новичок, но в этом даже есть некое преимущество. Я буду учиться, клянусь Богом, буду. Ничто меня не остановит. Миссис Дрю справляется, миссис Дейл-Эванс справляется, мисс Клинтридж справляется, значит, справлюсь и я или лопну. Четыре года назад я и представить себе не мог, что такое возможно. Я не чувствовал никакого призвания к этой профессии. Мной не руководили интересы молодого поколения или же расширение системы образования. Это решение было вызвано очень простой причиной – я хотел есть. Это решение было связано с чередой несчастливых событий, которые начались примерно неделю спустя, после моей демобилизации из Королевских Военно-воздушных Сил в 1945 году.

The translation of Shaverskaya Darya, Group 33

THEY
EAR OF TEACHER

THEY EAR OF MENTOR

I THINK THE BEST TEACHER IS...

While studying at school each of us has an ideal teacher. I'm not an exception.

I cannot say that this ideal was formed immediately. It took me a long time to decide what a teacher should be. Every year my evaluation criteria changed. At first, I thought that the teacher should be kind and not give bad grades. But the older I got the more my outlook on life in general and on the teacher in particular changed and expanded. When I was a teenager, I began to understand that a good teacher isn't the one who doesn't give bad grades but a person who makes a lot of effort to convey his/her knowledge to students. He/she must be fair and understanding. A teacher shouldn't allow themselves to take it out on students if he/she is in a bad mood. One of the main qualities of a teacher which should be present is an open mind towards students. He/she should not lower grades if he/she did not like something in the child they teach. One can endlessly enumerate the qualities that should be inherent in a teacher. I think it is impossible to have all these qualities. At the same time, every teacher should strive for self-development and self-improvement. Therefore, for me, the best teacher is a person who sincerely loves their work and the children they teach, he/she isn't afraid of difficulties and boldly overcomes them becoming only strong and more responsible.

In conclusion, I would like to say that the ideal of a teacher can be different. I have my own ideal and given that in the future I want to become a teacher, I will strive for this ideal. Perhaps the criteria will change but at the same time I will still strive for it.

The essay of Shamanina Valeria, Group 23

T
H
E
Y
E
A
R

O
F
T
E
A
C
H
E
R

T
H
E
Y
E
A
R

O
F

M
E
N
T
O
R

T
H
E
Y
E
A
R

O
F
T
E
A
C
H
E
R

T
H
E
Y
E
A
R

O
F
M
E
N
T
O
R

I'M GOING TO CONTINUE MY FAMILY'S DYNASTY OF TEACHERS

Honestly, I didn't know what to choose at first. Nevertheless, I decided to write about my family's dynasty of teachers. I consider that to be a continuation of the dynasty is a very responsible decision as to be a teacher isn't only to give knowledge to children but also to teach them to be a decent person.

As for my dynasty, it includes my grandmother, mother and me. My grandma was a primary school teacher and it was her dream job but now she's retired. However, she often recalls and tells of the years of her work with warmth. To be honest, she was considered to be a strict and fair teacher but her students are still grateful to her as not everyone can cope with children and teach them to be disciplined.

As for my mum, she had been looking for her purpose in life for a very long time and at the age of 21 she decided to be a teacher of chemistry and biology. Her dream came true. Now she works at our local school. To be honest, most of her day is spent there as she also teaches history and society. Her pupils adore her since she always prepares fascinating tasks and lessons. When we walk together, her graduates come up to hug and thank her for everything she did for them at school. Her colleagues say that she is a person of genius.

And now it's my turn to continue the dynasty. To tell the truth, I had 2 choices: to become a teacher of foreign languages or try to do my best and become an interpreter. Of course, the second variant was my dream but my luck just ran out. I was sorrowful but I decided to never give up. Now, I'm glad to study at the university to become a good teacher. There are many splendid professors who teach us important things and spend a lot of time and effort on us so that we understand everything in a particular work or task. We also try to show our skills and knowledge. Now I understand that I do want to be a teacher of English and French. I never imagined that I would be a continuation of my family's dynasty.

To sum up, I'd like to write that I'll do my best and practice to become a superior teacher as, everyone knows, practice makes perfect.

The essay of Galieva Inura, Group 33

T
H
E
Y
E
A
R

O
F
T
E
A
C
H
E
R

T
H
E
Y
E
A
R

O
F

M
E
N
T
O
R

I'M GOING TO CONTINUE MY FAMILY'S DYNASTY OF TEACHERS

Teaching... How much this word means. It is not just a profession, it is much more. I actually understand the value that cannot be overestimated as my family is a dynasty of teachers. Many of them have devoted and continue to devote their lives to this occupation.

My great-great grandfather, Salikai Shamratovich Shamratov, was the first primary school teacher in his village and loved his job very much. His son, my great-grandfather Ganil also graduated from a pedagogical college and had been working as a teacher and director for many years of my life. My grandfather followed his father's example.

My grandmother, Elena Yansybaevna, had been working as a teacher for 35 years and still remembers the best years of her work at school with warmth and often tells me about them, making me full of admiration. Her students are very grateful to her for her work.

Knowing the history of my family and listening to stories by my relatives about this great occupation of teaching, I dream of becoming the successor of my family's dynasty of teachers and a really good and decent teacher. I want to follow the example of my family and try to keep this noble tradition. Like my relatives, I want to convey to my future students the love of learning, to be not just a teacher giving them knowledge, but also a mentor, strengthening their moral foundation and educating them in order to make them a good future generation.

In conclusion, I'd like to say that teaching is actually a vocation. Not every person can become a teacher. He or she should have a sincere desire to give children, in addition to knowledge, his or her soul, warmth and care. I am very proud of my family - a dynasty of teachers, and I will try to become the same worthy master of my art.

The essay of Vasilyeva Oksana, Group 53

SPRING

Spring - is a beautiful time that brings us joy and light. We begin to feel better, inspiration catches up with us, and life is transformed.

SO, WHAT CAN YOU DO THIS SPRING TO MAKE IT UNFORGETTABLE AND CHANGE YOUR LIFE?

Below is a list of important things to do during this wonderful period of time.

Make a list of goals and go for them!

Eat ice cream while sitting on a bench in the park!

Find a new hobby!

Start studying psychology!

Find your style!

Read new books!

Walk with friends and drink aromatic coffee!

Discover a new place!

Arrange a photo shoot with flowers!

Start a business that is waiting for its moment!

Go somewhere for the weekend!

Spend more time outdoors!

Make new friends!

Visit the exhibition!

Go in for sports!

This is just a small list of things that you can certainly add to! We all have a dream, and now is the time to fulfill it! Everything is blooming, let your life sparkle with bright colors, and every moment will be full of joy!

8TH MARCH IN DIFFERENT COUNTRIES

After the collapse of the Soviet Union, Armenia stopped celebrating International Women's Day, and instead approved Motherhood and Beauty Day - April 7.

ARMENIA

March 8 is not considered a day off here, so it will be possible to celebrate only after a working day, and the beautiful half of humanity celebrates it without men, in their own companies in restaurants or cafes. By the way, in Rome, women on this day can watch a male striptease for free.

ITALY

This is an ordinary working day, and the holiday has not become a national tradition like ours.

BULGARIA

As locals say, the holiday of March 8 begins on the evening of the seventh. All the women of Belarus are waiting for flowers and, of course, congratulations on March 8.

BELARUS

According to the order of President Gurbanguly Berdimuhamedov, on March 8, women of Turkmenistan are given $11 each.

TURKMENISTAN

On this holiday, women wear a lot of jewelry, arrange dances and have the opportunity to finally forget about their problems. All kinds of concerts and festivals are held in Uganda, which form a single "Janjoba" program.

UGANDA

INDIA

In India, a holiday similar to our Women's Day is celebrated in early October. It lasts for 10 days, and is called in honor of the ten-armed goddess Durga Puja.

In France and Sweden, Women's Day is celebrated with the sale of handkerchiefs and flowers. The proceeds are donated to the funds of the heroine mothers so that they can go on vacation.

FRANCE AND SWEDEN

SERBIA

Serbia also has Mother's Day. It is celebrated at Christmas. Children jokingly tie their mother's hands. For the release, she must give them gifts prepared since the evening.

by Khusainova E.

HOW NOT TO MISS THE SPRING?

Spring is a little new life that we start after a cold long winter.

Spring is walking at night, entertainment, new acquaintances, adventures, travel, exciting turns in life, even passion, emotions and love.

Whether you're putting your spring activity calendar together now, or you're simply daydreaming about something to look forward to after the chilliest and darkest days of winter, it's never a bad idea to plan ahead.

SO...WHAT CAN YOU DO IN THE SPRING TO GET A LOT OF POSITIVE, UNFORGETTABLE AND HAPPY IMPRESSIONS FROM IT?

1. Thorough cleaning

To start a new life, you need to get rid of the old one. Thorough cleaning of the house will help in this matter. Throw away 7 unnecessary things on Saturdays. When buying a new item, get rid of the old one. So you will update your wardrobe and put it in order.

2. Yoga

Yoga is one of the best cheap hobbies to consider, because it doesn't take much to get started, and it results in a ton of mental and physical benefits. All you need is comfortable clothing and a yoga mat! And spring is the perfect time to get outside and enjoy the fresh air and sunshine as you breathe, relax, and focus on positive thoughts.

3. Plant a Garden

Gardening is a typical spring activity because spring is an ideal time to plant things or start your garden. Make sure to do your research about the best plants to plant in springtime and how much sun and rain each plant needs.

If tending to a garden outside isn't your thing, then consider making an indoor garden. You can grow spices, herbs, or decorative plants from inside.

P.S. this is a good way to please mom when she is preparing for the new gardening season.

4. Take a Pottery Class

Spring can be a great time to take up a new hobby or try a class. Whether you want to try it out on your own, for date night, or bring your friends along, learning about pottery can be a fun and rewarding experience.

5. Try a new hobby

With longer days and warmer weather, spring is a great time to try something new. Whether it's drawing, gardening or learning a new sport.

P.S. Taking up a new hobby can help boost self-esteem and self-confidence as we acquire new skills and develop new interests.

by Rashitova I.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS AT "THE STUDENT'S SPRING – 2023"

ARE YOU A "STUDENT SPRING" PARTICIPANT?

OR MAYBE YOU ARE LEADER OF THE CONCERT NUMBER?

ARE YOU USED TO THE FACT THAT EVERYTHING SHOULD BE PERFECT AND THOUGHT OUT TO THE SMALLEST DETAIL?

THAT'S CLEARLY NOT THE CASE...

Not everyone knows the most real and effective ways to achieve success at the "Student's Spring"...

That's why we want to share a couple of effective ways with you!

KILINA ANASTASIA

the art director of the Faculty of Philology and Cross-cultural Communications

- By the way, speaking about the script... Did you know that it is desirable to write it just the day before the performance?
- Of course, you can listen to the leaders of the concert numbers, but you need to do everything exactly the opposite, but in general ... you already know everything yourself, don't you?
- Look for a soundman at the last moment (preferably the day before the performance)
- Be sure to tell all your friends about what will happen at the concert, because they will not be interested in it at all.

- As you can guess, script-writing is a kind of imaginative art, so it's worth spending all of your time watching movies and TV shows - more references are needed!
- If you write down your name on a script from the Internet, then this script automatically becomes yours.

TISHINA NATALYA

head writer, head of the "Journalism" sector

GORSHKOV DANIL

head of the "The theater of little forms nomination", KVN

- You shouldn't come to rehearsals on time. You don't want to let everyone down, do you?
- It isn't necessary to learn the text because improvisation is our everything!
- If you're singing, you don't have to get into a rhythm.
- And you don't have to respect the other members of the concert numbers.

- Advice for vocalists: you can sing at random, and also not fall into tune. The main thing is that your soul sings.

SHAIKHIYEVA ALIVIYA

head of the "Vocals" sector

- Remember: you need to perform only for the sake of diploma for the ? (increased/merit) scholarship!
- Don't smile during the performance! Otherwise, all your friends will think that you lost your mind...
- Leaders of the concert numbers are narrow-minded people, so you don't have to listen to their advice at all.
- Do you need costumes for the performance? No, in general, it is possible to perform in pajamas.
- Do not hurry to prepare for the festival, you have a lot of time, everything can be done in a day.

BELYAVSKAYA ANNA

head of the "Original Genre" sector, Pantomime

SHARIPOVA ZALINA

head of the "Pop dance" sector

- Break a leg and luck will not leave you until the end of the "Student's Spring" festival.
- Dancers, don't wear shorts under your skirt!

- Forget the existence of double-periods!
- Attend only 1 rehearsal of 20!

MULLAKAEVA ELVINA

head of the "Folk dance" sector

- Do not repeat the gestures additionally, it is better to forget everything and improvise!
- Dress better combines with sneakers!
- Do not find out when you perform, the stage is at your disposal the whole concert!

GALIEVA KAMILLA
head of the "Original Genre" sector,
Sign-singing

WE HOPE THESE TIPS WILL HELP YOU TO PREPARE FOR THIS GREAT EVENT IN THE FUTURE!
WE WISH YOU ALL SUCCESSFUL PERFORMANCES!

by Shaverskaya D.

The Faculty of Philology and Cross-cultural Communications is THE BCST

ST. PATRICK'S DAY IN NEW YORK: HOW IT WAS 250 YEARS AGO AND HOW IT IS NOW?

Who is Saint Patrick?

Saint Patrick, who was born in Britain to a Christian family of Roman citizenship at the end of the 4th century, was one of the most successful Christian missionaries in history. At the age of 16 he was taken prisoner by a group of Irish raiders who attacked his family's property. They took him to Ireland and he spent six years in captivity before fleeing back to Britain. Believing he was called by God to Christianize Ireland, he joined the Catholic Church and studied for 15 years before being consecrated as the church's second missionary in Ireland. Patrick began his mission in Ireland in 432, and by his death in 461 the island was almost entirely Christian.

What was St. Patrick's Day like in the beginning?

It is claimed that it was not held as a parade, but as a breakfast at the Crown and Thistle Inn on Whitehall Street. Then, in 1779, the annual breakfast became a pageant in which "400 Irish volunteers marched behind a British party from Lower Broadway to the Bowery Tavern".

How is it happening now?

St. Patrick's Day is not considered an official holiday, trains and shops operate according to the usual schedule. Every year in New York on March 17, the world's largest parade in honor of St. Patrick takes place. It starts at 11:00 and ends around 17:00. If the holiday falls on a Sunday, the parade is moved to Saturday.

The city turns into a huge party with unlimited beer and food. Even Americans who have nothing to do with Irish culture take to the streets to celebrate this fun holiday. The green color prevails on the streets, sometimes even the food that is sold here is tinted green. Don't miss green bagels and green beer! On this day, the Empire State Building is illuminated in green.

Even after the end of the parade, people continue to walk the streets and have fun in different cafes (for example, on Second Avenue). Most bars on the Upper East Side are packed until close. Get ready to walk all night long!

What to do on St. Patrick's Day?

If you're looking for a place to celebrate St. Patrick's Day with a few pints of Guinness, head to Murray Hill on Manhattan's east side. There are several Irish bars within walking distance of each other. Go to McSorley's Old Ale House, Fitzgeralds and Paddy Reilly's Music Bar, for example. If you want to grab a bite to eat, there are also plenty of Indian restaurants in the area.

by Zinova Ya.

CAN A FILM CHANGE YOUR PERCEPTION OF LOVE?

Love is the only thing that can be discussed forever because it is so controversial for everyone. Your perception of a romantic relationship may differ from that of other people. This is what is beautiful about this feeling, we can experience different types of it throughout our lives.

I WONDER WHAT ART CONSIDERS LOVE?

Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind

A story about two people in relationship who decided to erase each other from their memory. But little did they know what our hearts still remember.

The movie tells us about a romance between a man and his operating system. How many dissimilarities are there and is it all even worth it?

Her

Vicky Cristina Barcelona

Two girls on their vacation fall for a painter. It all escalates when his ex-wife also gets in the picture. Can one be in a relationship with several people?

Buffalo '66

A guy who got out of jail and wants to prove to his family he has a girlfriend. He kidnaps a girl who later falls in love with him and tries to fix a broken person.

10 Reasons I Hate You

This love story is about a broke boy who bets for money to win over a very demanding girl. But he soon starts to realize that it has nothing to do with money.

Every Day

This film shows us a person who reincarnates into different people every day. He falls in love with a girl while being in her boyfriend's body and feels that it's mutual.

by Mamalimova Ay.

